Dear Sir/ Madam,

This is pursuant to our intimation to the stock exchanges on June 28, 2018. We would like to clarify that, no coupon (at the rate of 4.5% per annum) is payable on the unconverted Foreign Currency Convertible Bonds (FCCBs) post the occurrence of conversion kick-off event. If International Finance Corporation doesn't exercise its conversion option till the end of 5 years from date of subscription, in which case the coupon is accrued, compounded and payable along with the compound interest (at the rate of 2% per annum) in two equal instalments of fifty percent (50%) each at the end of 5 years and 6 years respectively from the subscription date. Conversion kick-off event occurs on the date on which the stock price per equity share (volume weighted daily average price) has been equal to or greater than INR 225 on each trading day for a preceding period of six (6) months.

Also, we would like to clarify that no coupon or compound interest shall be payable whatsoever on the converted portion of the FCCBs since the day the conversion occurs.

We request you to take the above on record and treat it as compliance under the applicable provisions of the Listing Regulations.

Thanking you,

Yours faithfully,
For Camlin Fine Sciences Limited
